PYA provides forensic accounting and dispute services to a broad range of businesses, healthcare systems, non-profit organizations, governmental agencies, and the law firms that represent them.

Our forensic and dispute professionals have broad industry experience and highly regarded credentials from organizations such as the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, American Society of Appraisers, and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners.

We understand the importance of credible analysis and effective testimony in business dispute matters. Our experts have not only the ability to efficiently analyze and simplify complex financial information, but also the communication skills needed to clearly explain our findings and opinions in and out of the court room.

Our forensic and dispute services include:

- Shareholder disputes (buyouts, oppression, dissent)
- Bankruptcy and restructuring (solvency, fair value of assets)
- Post-merger and acquisition disputes (material adverse changes, earnouts, post-close adjustments)
- Economic damages (lost profits, lost value)
- Family law/divorce matters
- Healthcare Certificate of Need applications
- Forensic accounting
- Fraud Investigations

For more information regarding our forensic and dispute services, please contact Jim Lloyd or Marty Brown at (865) 673-0844 or (800) 270-9629.
