Valuation Services

PYA provides valuation and transaction advisory services in connection with mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations, bankruptcies, spinoffs, divestures, joint ventures, and going private transactions.

Our valuation analysts have the experience and expertise needed to effectively guide you through the process of selling your business or evaluating potential acquisition targets.

We are business advisors not business brokers. Therefore, our valuation analysis and advice remains objective and independent throughout the process.

Our transaction advisory services include:

- Valuing privately-held businesses for sell transactions
- Fairness opinions
- Identifying and evaluating potential acquisition targets
- Evaluating purchase offers
- Due diligence
- Value improvement consulting
- Structuring buy-sell agreements
- Purchase price allocations

Our Valuation Leadership Team provides a full range of valuation services to a broad spectrum of businesses, healthcare organizations, non-profit entities, and individuals across the United States.

Our valuation professionals have broad industry experience and highly regarded credentials from organizations such as the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the American Society of Appraisers.

W. James (Jim) Lloyd is a shareholder and valuation services practice leader for the firm. Jim has valued hundreds of businesses and related intangible assets spanning a broad range of industries including healthcare, banking, manufacturing, real estate, and wholesale distribution among others. Expert testimony experience includes federal and various state and local courts and arbitration proceedings across the United States. Jim is a frequent speaker at national and regional conferences on valuation related topics and holds leadership roles with several appraisal organizations including the American Institute of CPAs and the American Society of Appraisers.
